

Handsome $400.00 Piano GIVEN AWAY!

GIVEN AWAY

SAM ROBINSON will give away, absolutely without cost the handsome Piano shown below. This offer is open to any lady in Lincoln or adjoining counties and nomination blanks may be obtained at Sam Robinson's store or cut from this ad. This will be the most interesting advertising proposition ever held in this section and everyone has an equal opportunity to secure this piano.

How to Secure This Piano.

For every penny spent we will issue trade coupons. These coupons are good for their face value in votes at the rate of one vote for every cent of purchase. The coupons are transferable, and if you are not interested in securing the prize for yourself, you can make some friend or acquaintance happy by saving your votes for them. The Contest is open to anyone in this town or surrounding country, and the person securing vote coupons representing the largest number of votes, will receive this beautiful instrument free of all cost.

Rules Governing Contest

1. No name of contestants will be known.
2. No name of contestants will be published.
3. Every contestant gets 2,000 votes to start with.
4. Every contestant gets a number.
5. Standing by number published weekly in the Interior Journal.
6. All votes must be brought in Wednesday for recording.
7. Votes must not be written on.
8. Tie votes in packages with contestant's number and amount on top slip.
9. Color of certificates will be changed each month, and must be recorded monthly to count.
10. Votes are transferable only before recording.
11. Contestant having largest number of votes on January 1, 1913 wins the piano.

No Publicity. An Equal Chance For All.

Nominations will be received from anyone, either personally or by mail, and will at once be entered in a voting register and the person will be notified. There will be no publicity for anyone, as every contestant will be assigned a particular number. All published bulletins will be by number only. At the close of the contest the piano will immediately be awarded the winner. No lucky number will win this beautiful and useful prize. Just send in your name, have a number assigned to you, and then boost for that number among your relatives and friends. The rules are simple, the chance costs nothing. An opportunity for anyone to secure an instrument that will give untold joy and pleasure. We do not expect to recover the expense of this contest through a larger percentage or profit, but through a larger volume of business; and we will endeavor to give you more for your money in the future than we have in the past.

In case of a tie, a Prize identical in every respect with that tied for, will be awarded to each tying contestant.

Contest Closes Jan. 1, 1913.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of execution No. (636) issued from the Clerk's office of the six thirty six, directed to me, which Lincoln Circuit Court, in favor of Swift & Co., against J. J. Durham, I, or one of my deputies, will, on Monday, the 8th day of July, 1912, between the hours of one o'clock P. M. and two o'clock P. M. at the court house door in Stanford, county of Lincoln, Kentucky, expose to public sale to the highest bidder, the following property (or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the amount of the plaintiff's debt, interest, and costs,) to-wit:

House and lot in the town of McKinney Lincoln county, Ky., and bounded thus, beginning at corner to Geo. Givens', thence south 73 East 19 3-4 poles; South 12 West 8 1-2 poles North 73 West 19 3-4 poles; north 12 east 8 1-2 poles to the beginning containing one acre and one pole, being the land held by said J. J. Durham, under deed recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Lincoln County Court of Lincoln county, in deed book 44, page 553. By going upon said land and notifying the only occupant thereof the wife of the said J. J. Durham of said levy. This levy is subject to the mortgage lien of the McKinney Deposit Bank, which is recorded in the office of the Lincoln County clerk's office in mortgage book N, page 139. Levy was made after failure to find any personal property upon which same could be levied on. This levy made May 8th, 1912. The amount of this execution is $65.64 and cash expended $11.75, with interest from Sept. 20th 1909, levied upon as the property of J. J. Durham.

TERMS: Sale will be made on a credit of (3) three months bond with approved security required, bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from day of sale, and having the force and effect of a sales bond, this 20th day of June 1912.

W. L. McCarty,
50-51 Sheriff Lincoln County Court
N. J. Gorham, Cashier of Woodville, Woodville, Ga., had a very severe attack of kidney trouble and the pains in his kidney and back were terrible. "I got a bottle of Foley's Kidney Pills from our druggist and they entirely relieved me. I have more benefit from them than any other medicine."

McKinney.

Miss Anna E. Sigworth and Mr. T. W. Pemberton of Somerset, spent a few days here last week visiting old friends.

Mrs. Harry Jacobs, has been on the sick list for a few days, but is better at this writing.

Mr. R. S. Seudder, was in Richmond, Monday on business.

The Thompson Comedy and Wild West show gave a very satisfactory exhibition three nights this week in the Macabee hall.

Mr. Hayden Mitchell, of Waynesburg, was here all last week working for Harry Jacobs, in the monument works.

The following out of town people registered at the Lay Hotel last week: J. B. Whitenack, Moreland, McCoffia Clauch, Bohon, Ky., Fred C. Westrock, Lexington, Miss Della Ludy, Nicholasville, Rod Perry and wife, Warsaw, Ky., John K. Watson, Knoxville, Tenn., James H. Newman, Ludlow, M. L. Sharp, Liberty, A. M. Spotswood, Lexington, Brack Godfrey, Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Riffe, of Ludlow, are visiting their parents here for a few days.

Harry Jacobs, The Monument Man, erected a substantial granite monument at McCormack's church cemetery, Monday for G. L. Carter. Quite a number of Methodist Ministers got off the train here Tuesday and went to Middleburg to attend the Methodist conference which is in session at that place this week.

It is a question as to whether John Rowland is the chief porter or the chief courier at the Lay House.

An increasing number of people report regularly of the satisfactory results from taking Foley Kidney Pills and commend their healing and curative qualities. Foley Kidney Pills are a carefully prepared medicine, guaranteed to contain no harmful or habit forming drugs. They can have only a beneficial effect when used for kidney and bladder troubles, for backache, rheumatism, weak back or lumbago, Shugars & Tanner.

Estrey—Dark red steer, spot on its forehead; marked in right ear; reward for return to W. L. Cordier.
